Largest in World

The following table enlists the Largest, Longest, Tallest, Highest, Biggest, & Smallest in the world –

What/Which is	Name/Location	Numeric Value	Image
The Northernmost City (with more than 100,000 inhabitants)	Norilsk (Russia)	Coordinates - 69°20′N 88°13′E
The southernmost City	Ushuaia (Argentina)	Coordinates - 54°48′S 68°18′W
The Highest Mt. Peak	Mount Everest (Himalayan Range)(Nepal)	Height – 8848 Meters
The Highest (navigable) Lake	Lake Titicaca (on the border of Bolivia and Peru)	Altitude - 3,812 Meters
The Lowest Lake	Dead Sea (on the border of West Bank, Israel and Jordan	427 Meters Below Sea Level

Deepest Lake	Baikal (Russia)	Depth – 1,642 Meters
The Largest Fresh Water Lake (by surface area)	Lake Superior (on the border of the USA & Canada)	Surface Area - 82,100 km
The Largest Gulf	Mexico Gulf (Atlantic Ocean)	Surface Area - 1,550,000 sq. km
The Deepest River Gorge	Kali Gandaki Gorge or Andha Galchi (Nepal)	Depth - 5,571 Meter
The Longest River	Nile (North Africa)	Length - 6,853 km
The Longest River (by volume water)	Amazon River (South America)	Length - 6,400 km

The Highest Waterfall	Angel Falls (Venezuela)	Height - 979 m

a