Directions for Question Nos. 51-55 :
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Once upon a time there was a quiet shy octopus. Although he wanted to have lots of friends, he was too self-conscious. One day, he was trying to catch an oyster. The oyster slipped from his clutch and he tied himself into one massive knot. He tried to wriggle free, but failed. He asked for help from the passing fish. Many fishes swam past ignoring him but one little fish offered to help and made all the tentacles free from the suckers. The octopus felt relieved but he was too shy to talk to the fish and make friendship with him. He simply thanked the fish and quickly swam off.

One day, the octopus was resting between some rocks. He found everyone around him hurriedly swimming past. He looked out and saw an enormous fish coming over to feed in that area. The octopus quickly hid himself. Peeping out, he saw that the huge fish was chasing the kind little fish. The octopus, remembering how the little fish had helped him, decided that he should save the little fish. He shot out from the rocks and put himself right before the giant fish. He shot out the biggest jet of ink of his life. He grabbed the little fish and swam off to hide in the rocks. Everything happened so fast that the giant fish had no time to react. He soon recovered from the surprise. Off he went to the rocks, looking for the octopus and the little fish. He really wanted to gobble them down. Suddenly, he began feeling a terrible itch all over his body. It turned out that the octopus's dark ink had given him a terrible allergy. So he swam away, irritated all over. As soon as he was gone, all the fishes came from their hiding and congratulated the octopus on being so brave.
