Instructions: Read the following passage carefully. Answer all the ten questions asked from the passage by picking out the correct/appropriate answer out of the four alternatives given against each question below the passage.

Recently, in the editorial of a national daily, it has been rightly stated that "once the heat and hostilities of an election end, governance should be a cooperative enterprise, with the incumbent seeking advice or information from the one he succeeds". The Ex-Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee maintained cordial relations with the opposition leaders. The present Finance Minister, Arun Jaitly, keeps in touch with his predecessor, Dr. P. Chidambaram, on economic matters. This healthy practice should be encouraged. If both the former and the present Prime Ministers discussed issues mainly relating to the economy, Narendra Modi should be commended for reaching out to his predecessor who is a renowned economist. The opposition quip that the Ex- P.M. Dr. Manmohan Singh gave lessons in Economics to PM Modi during a meeting was a childish jibe, betraying immaturity in the Opposition Party which is expected to show sense and substance.

- 41. How did, as shown in the passage, the B.J.P regimes seek to advance the idea that ideal governance is a cooperative enterprise? (Choose the right answer out of the four alternatives given below)
 - A) The Ex-Prime Minister, Mr. Vajpayee, used to maintain cordial relation with the opposition leaders.
 - B) The present Finance Minister Arun Jaitly consults his predecessor Dr. P. Chidambaram on economic matters.
 - C) Both A) & B) are correct
 - D) Only A is correct
